AMETEK MOCON LAUNCHES NEW GERMAN and CHINESE WEBSITES

Minneapolis, MN, (Dec. 1, 2020) – AMETEK MOCON, a global leader in analyzers, instruments, sensors and gas measurement technologies, today announced the launch of new German and Chinese versions of its ametekmocon.com website: www.ametekmocon.de and www.ametekmocon.cn.

The new translated websites showcase MOCON Permeation Analyzers, Dansensor Packaging Testing Analyzers, and Baseline Industrial Analyzers & Sensors to German- and Chinese-speaking customers. These new websites provide extensive product, technical and application information in local languages communicating AMETEK MOCON’s full line of products to our customers in Germany and China.

“Germany and China are two of our largest markets and where we offer direct Sales and Service for our MOCON, Dansensor and Baseline testing products. It is great that we now have websites that speak to our customers in these countries and connects them to our local teams,” said Phillip Tan, Global Director of Strategic Marketing, AMETEK MOCON. “These new sites significantly enhance our ability to serve our German and Chinese customers and are mobile and tablet friendly for easy browsing” noted Tan.
